

Get Ready to File – Partnering with the IRS

January 23rd, 2023

10am to 12pm

Virtual & In Person

Chesterfield County Public Library / Central Library / Large Meeting Room / 7051 Lucy Corr Blvd / Chesterfield

The Virginia Department of Small Business & Supplier Diversity and the US Internal Revenue Service (IRS) are offering this FREE workshop to help you get ready to file your business taxes. This workshop is valuable whether your business is brand new or has been operating for 20+ years.

Some of the topics covered include:

- Differences in business structures
- Record keeping
- Changes in the tax laws (particularly if you accept payments via cash apps)
- Navigating the IRS website

If you plan to file your 2022 business taxes, you want to attend this workshop.

NOTE: This session is being offered in person and virtually. If you attend in person, you will receive the educational literature provided by the IRS. If you attend virtually, you can access the educational literature from the IRS website. Accessing this information will be demonstrated during the presentation.
